

CENTER FOR ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG RESOURCES AND EDUCATION

Mission

The Center for Alcohol and Other Drugs Resources and Education (CADRE) supports the Marianist principles of community living by delivering science-based risk-reduction alcohol and other drugs prevention education, intervention services, and recovery support. The Center contributes to the educational mission of the University through early identification and intervention services in support of student academic success and retention.

We Are Here To Help!

The Center for Alcohol and Other Drugs Resources and Education provides a variety of services to help you make informed decisions regarding alcohol and other drugs. The Center also provide information and resources for students who are in recovery or who wish to abstain from substance use. The goal is to ensure that all UD students have a safe, healthy, and successful college experience.

If you would you like to receive professional feedback on your drinking habits, schedule a confidential consultation and meet with one of our licensed staff members. For a listing of prevention education programs and intervention services, please visit: go.udayton.edu/cadre.
