

ACCREDITATION

The University of Dayton's Master of Business Administration and Master of Professional Accountancy programs are fully accredited by the most rigorous accrediting body for business education programs, AACSB International - the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

The Master of Finance, Master of Business Analytics, and Masters of Business Administration programs are STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) approved programs.