

PRE-LAW

Minor:

- Pre-Law (p. 1)

The Pre-Law Program, designed to serve students from all areas of the University, provides undergraduates and alumni interested in law school with opportunities to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary for a successful legal career through both the Pre-Law Studies minor as well as through an extensive variety of pre-professional services and resources designed to help students plan an intentionally developmental undergraduate academic path. While students interested in careers in law should choose undergraduate majors to match their interests and abilities, they should also contact and stay engaged with the Pre-Law Program as early in their undergraduate careers as possible so they can receive effective prelaw advice.

Students can take advantage of one or both paths through the Pre-Law Program. The interdisciplinary Pre-Law Studies minor enhances the preparation of students planning to seek admission to law school by promoting both the development of skills considered essential by both law schools and legal professionals – critical reasoning, writing, and analytical skills – and professional skills. The Pre-Law Program, i.e., the Director, together with fifteen additional prelaw faculty advisors, provides students with curriculum guidance for developing the skills set needed for success in their future legal education and career, with law school admissions fairs, with aid in preparing for the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), including simulated tests and prep workshops, and with individual assistance in law school selection and law school applications. Moreover, the Program has a legal internship program and a Mock Trial team, both of which offer students valuable experiential learning working with attorneys, an undergraduate chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, a Pre-Law Club, and other opportunities for development based on the individual student's talents, interests, and goals.

For further information concerning the Pre-Law Program at the University of Dayton, students should contact the Pre-Law Program in Alumni Hall, Room 117; phone (937) 229-4229 or at prelaw@udayton.edu.
