RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Major:
• Bachelor of Arts, Religious Studies (p. 1)

Minors:
• Religious Studies (p. 2)
• Religious Studies- Catechesis (p. 2)

The Department of Religious Studies sees itself as a community of scholars serving the University community and the local community by teaching, research, criticism, and action. The main concern of the department is an understanding and elucidation of the Judaeo-Christian religious experience as it is exemplified in the Roman Catholic tradition. This implies not only a deep investigation of the Latin Catholic position but also a dialogue with other Christian traditions and with other world religious.

Students majoring in religious studies ordinarily follow one of five tracks in the major:
• Students preparing for ministry in a Christian church (e.g., pastoral associates, youth ministry, parish religious educators) follow the "Ministry" track.
• Students preparing to teach religion in elementary or secondary schools follow the "Catholic Schools" track.
• Students preparing for graduate study in Christian theology, systematics, church history, ethics, etc., follow the "Graduate School Preparation" track.
• Students preparing for graduate study of religions other than Christianity and/or interested in world religions follow the "World Religions" track.
• Students wishing to study religion as a way of broadening their horizons or who are interested in religious studies as an undergraduate major follow the "General" track.

All religious studies majors must show basic practical communicative proficiency in one foreign language.

A minor in religious studies consists of 18 semester hours, which includes REL 103 or REL 198 or ASI 110. At least three semester hours are to be at the 400-level.

A minor in Catechesis consists of 19 semester hours, not including REL 103 or REL 198 or ASI 110.
