

SCHOOL OF LAW LIBRARY

The University of Dayton School of Law's Zimmerman Law Library (<https://www.udayton.edu/law/library/>) in Joseph E. Keller Hall provides access to more than 300,000 printed materials, microfilms, and legal databases on Anglo-American, foreign, comparative, and international law. It also has a host of bar exam preparation materials and academic support resources. Its open-stack arrangement permits easy access to all materials, and Zimmerman Law Library faculty and staff are available to provide assistance to students, faculty, and staff.

The Zimmerman Law Library provides 500 seats for study and research; an abundance of electrical outlets; and several computers with Internet access for public use. Group study rooms are available to current students, faculty, and staff in the School of Law, and wireless access is available with a UD login and password. The Zimmerman Law Library is generally open to undergraduate students, lawyers, judges, and the public; however, hours and access may be more limited than for School of Law students, faculty, and staff.