

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HEALTH SCIENCES CURRICULUM MATERIALS CENTER

The Brother Louis J. Faerber, S.M., Curriculum Materials Center (CMC), on the sixth floor of Brother Raymond L. Fitz Hall, houses the School of Education and Health Sciences' specialized education collections. Its collection includes:

- Professional education books and journals.
- Literature for children and young adults.
- Elementary, middle, and secondary textbooks and curricula.
- Standardized assessments.
- Teaching aids (games models, kits, and manipulatives).
- Anatomical models.

A comb binder, a laminator, Ellison and Accu-Cut die cutting machines, and an assortment of letter and shape dies are available for student use. The center also has a study room with tables, chairs, and whiteboards.

Students can access a FlyerPrint color copy/print/scan station nearby from a laptop or mobile device.

For more information, see the CMC website (https://udayton.edu/education/offices_and_centers/cmc/)